

Acknowledgement of the Carnegie Mellon University Policy on Academic Integrity

Students at Carnegie Mellon are engaged in intellectual activity consistent with the highest standards of the academy. The relationship between students and instructors and their shared commitment to overarching standards of respect, honor and transparency determine the integrity of our community of scholars. The actions of our students, faculty and staff are a representation of our university community and of the professional and personal communities that we lead. Therefore, a deep and abiding commitment to academic integrity is fundamental to a Carnegie Mellon education. Honesty and good faith, clarity in the communication of core values, professional conduct of work, mutual trust and respect, and fairness and exemplary behavior represent the expectations for ethical behavior for all members of the Carnegie Mellon community.

Read the complete policy at: <https://www.cmu.edu/policies/student-and-student-life/academic-integrity.html>.

The INI Student Handbook contains additional eligibility guidelines and procedures related to academic integrity violations by INI students.

It is your responsibility as an INI student to read and follow the Carnegie Mellon University Policy on Academic Integrity, in addition to the eligibility guidelines in the INI Student Handbook.

I have read, understood and will adhere to the Carnegie Mellon University Policy on Academic Integrity referenced above.
